PUMPKINVILLE opens September 26 with New Attractions for 2009

Leesburg, VA – Take a fall stay-cation at Pumpkinville located on 21 rolling acres in the heart of Loudoun County. New attractions for 2009 include a Centipede Slide, Spider's Lair Crawl Thru and several surprise features. Enjoy hay mazes, hill slides, straw tunnels, rope swings, and all-you-can-eat apples & fresh cider. Pick your own patch pumpkin and explore the newly expanded Fort Pumpkin recreation zone. Admission includes entry to the Leesburg Animal Park featuring a baby Ring Tailed Lemur, new born llama, and the region's only walk through aviary. Pet and feed brilliantly colored lorikeets and other exotic and animals or take a pony ride.

The 200 ft. Kids Zip Line is back on weekends along with scare crow making, camel rides, face painting, mini tractor rides and live entertainment by renowned comedians, magicians, and puppeteers. Pumpkinville is a fun and educational experience for the entire family. It's perfect for group outings including schools, sports teams, company picnics, and family reunions. Create lasting memories with Pumpkinville's birthday party packages.

Pumpkinville is located 2 miles south of Leesburg on Rt. 15 19270 James Monroe Highway. Open daily from 9am-6pm (closing at 5pm after daylight savings) through November 3. Weekday admission is $8.50 per person; Weekends & holidays are $12.50 per person. Weekday pre-scheduled groups of 10 or more are $7.50 per person. Children under 2 are FREE.
